Hhhhhhh Numb. 3548.

The Daily Courant.

Saturday, June 19. 1714.

London, June 19.

Yesterday arrived the Mail from Holland of Tuesday last.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated June 16.

Vienna, June 12.

WE have Advice from Hungary, that all the Imperial Troops to the Number of 40000 Men, are in Motion to incamp. The Turks having taken some Umbrage at it, the Bashaw of Belgrade dispatched an Express to Peterwaradin, to learn the Reason of that Motion; Answer was returned to him, that his Imperial Majesty caused his Troops to incamp, to relieve the People from quartering them. The Emperour has likewise dispatched an Express to his Resident at Constantinople, to order him to make the like Declaration to the Sultan.

Leipsich, June 17. We have been much surprized to learn by Letters from Upper Poland, that 5 or 6 Imperial Regiments have entred that Kingdom, and that the Vanguard were actually arrived at Sanbor. 'Tis rumoured that the Count de Szembek, Great Chancellor of Poland, was to arrive Yesterday at Dresden, to make Report to the King of the State of Affairs of that Kingdom, and to represent the Necessity of his Majesty's returning thither speedily; and 'tis said his Majesty has resolved to repair by the End of this Month to Warlaw, and that the Equipages will set forward in two or three Days. There is great Talk at the Court of his Polish Majesty, of a Plot laid at Cologne to sieze and carry off the Electoral Prince, when he should be on his Way to Aix la Chapelle; but we cannot learn the right Particulars of it.

From the Amst. Gazette, dated June 16.

Seafhuysen, June 17. According to the last Advices from Baden, the Ministers of the Emperour and of the King of France continued to assemble four times a Week; but 'twas not known that they had yet regulated the Ceremonial, and the Order to be observed in holding the Congress. 'Tis said some Difficulty has risen on that Subject, which has given Occasion to the Ministers of France to dispatch an Express to Versailles. Nor is it yet regulated whither any one Minister alone shall keep the Register, or the Secretaries of the Ambassies of the Emperour and of France together. We are told, that the first Business which will be debated, will be the Re-establishment of the Elector of Bavaria in his Dominions. The Lords of Bern have made a good Regulation, for preventing Scarcity of Provisions at Baden during the Congress. The 13th Instant at Night the Minister of Spain, who yet keeps incognito here, made a Visit to the Count du Luc, Ambassador of his most Christian Majesty. M. de Malknecht and Kurrig, who happened to be then with the Count, withdrew immediately. The Court of Rome have written to the Ministers of the Emperour and of France, in favour of the Abbot of St. Gall and of the Roman Catholick Cantons, who flatter themselves they shall have restored the Country they lost by Arms. There are at Baden some Persons on the Part of the Chevalier de St. George, who keep there incognito: They have received some Couriers, and have dispatched others.

Lisbon, May 22. 'The 26th about 10 at 'Night the Queen of Portugal was brought 'to bed of a Prince. The three following 'Nights the Bells rung, the Guns fired, 'and all the City and Ships were full of 'Lights.

Dunkirk, June 16. 'The Batterdau at the 'Sluice of the Basson is made, but 'tis 'judged the other will be 8 Days before it 'is quite finished, although there is a great 'Number of Men at work daily, and of late 'they have thrown in Stone which helps to 'bind

'bind the Mortar and Sand, that the Tide 'cannot force so much away as it used to do. 'All the Jutrees, except a small space on the 'Head of the West Side, are taken down; 'and they make great Dispatch in demolish-'ing the Citadel. The two Battallions, 'tis said, will certainly march to Morrow 'or next Day to Newport, some of the Of-'ficers who have Families being gone thither 'this Day. As for the New Harbour, I can 'say nothing more than that People reason 'variously about it.

Dublin, June 12. 'Several Persons who 'had been inlisted into the Service of the 'Pretender, have been tried this Day for 'High Treason; but the farther hearing 'their Case is put off till the 15th.
